

YWCA Cass Clay Internship Opportunities

YWCA Cass Clay is on a mission to eliminate racism, empower women, and promote peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all. We carry out this mission through the pillar of empowerment, by supporting women as they gain confidence and recover from the damaging effects of poverty and violence. Each woman who comes to our door is provided with the tools needed to transform her life. Without judgement, we offer safe shelter, food, clothing, childcare, education and employment services, an onsite nurse, and transportation assistance on each woman's personal journey to independence.

Purpose:

The YWCA Cass Clay Internship is a learning experience designed to help students build skills to create a smooth transition into their career after graduation. It will give students the opportunity to learn about the career opportunities in human services and nonprofits.

A YWCA Intern will have the opportunity to focus their efforts on transition from theory-based practice to application-based skill.
